Nonglamfood

Nong Lam Food is a manufacturer and exporter of dried fruits from Vietnam. Our key principle of processing is "Preserving the value of nature".

Nong Lam Food originates from Nong Lam University, HCMC and our R&D is linked to the university.

The manufacturing process applies advanced infrared drying technology from Korea, which retains all the nutritional content and makes products softer and tastier.

Fresh fruits are carefully selected from our connected farms in regions of Vietnam. They are kept full of flavors and values from nature.

Core Values

We are a group of people sharing the same mindset and action. We have the passion to serve the consumers, our families, and society. Creativity is encouraged and essential in all activities we are committed. Within the organization, we learn to love each other, respect, and understand the differences among members.

Our Vision

Be a trusted partner to provide Vietnamese agricultural products, including dried tropical fruits and nuts, to other countries.

Ensure satisfaction of customers and partners with professionalism, sincerity and creativity.

Continuously research and apply new knowledge and technology to improve product quality and taste.

Develop into a strong and sustainable business in the field of dried fruits and agricultural products.

Our Mission

Our mission is to process and provide healthier products that also keep up with the consumers modern-life needs. We are motivated to bring Vietnam's best agricultural and food products to the World.
